Routing revised

Effective Tuesday, September 7, 2004

The seasonal service from Union Station to Cherry Street, serving the Esplanade, Mill Street, the Distillery District, and the Toronto International Ferry Terminal, will continue in September, but service levels and hours of operation will be reduced, to reflect lower non-summer activity levels. Monday-Friday daytime service to the Ferry Terminal will be provided by the 172 CHERRY STREET route, instead of the 72 PAPE route.

The 172 CHERRY STREET (Union Station-Cherry Beach) route will operate a limited service during the morning and afternoon from Monday to Friday, scheduled to meet ferry arrivals and departures. Service will operate every 40 minutes. On Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, the 172 CHERRY STREET route will continue to provide daytime service. Service will operate every 20 minutes.

Service on the 72B PAPE (Pape Station-Union Station via Commissioners and Cherry) branch will be eliminated, and will revert back to the 72A PAPE (Pape Station-Union Station via Commissioners) service as was operated before May 2004. With this change, buses on the 72 PAPE route will no longer divert south of Commissioners Street to Cherry Beach and the ferry terminal.
